

Employee Code of Conduct

BrightWater Industries is committed to maintaining the highest ethical standards.

All employees are expected to act with integrity, avoid conflicts of interest, and protect confidential information at all times.

Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions should be directed to People Operations at people-ops@brightwater.example.